

GUIDE TO OMB CIRCULAR NO. A-11

What is the purpose of this Circular?

Part 1: Covers the development of the President's budget and tells you how to prepare and submit materials required for OMB and Presidential review of agency requests and for formulation of the FY 2001 Budget. A significant portion of this part focuses on the preparation of the Budget Appendix and the related data base.

Part 2: Describes the requirements of the Government Performance and Results Act and tells you how to prepare and submit strategic plans, annual performance plans, and annual program performance reports.

Part 3: Discusses the planning, budgeting and acquisition of capital assets, and tells you how to prepare and submit information on new and past acquisitions.

Does this Circular apply to me?

This Circular applies to all executive departments and establishments, including Government-sponsored enterprises. In addition, agencies of the legislative and judicial branches must comply with some of the requirements of Part 1. Each part of the Circular indicates specifically who is subject to the policies and reporting requirements contained in that part.

When are the materials required by this Circular due?

Different materials are due on different dates. The initial submission of budget justification and other materials is due September 13 for Cabinet agencies as well as other agencies subject to executive branch review. Section 27 provides additional information on due dates.

Has the format and organization of the Circular changed?

Yes. This year's version of the Circular looks very different from previous years' versions. We revised it for style as well as substance. We rewrote many of the sections using plain language to make them easier to read and follow, but did not change the substance of those sections. However, we extensively revised the sections that provide general information on the budget (sections 10, 15, 20, 25, and 27) and the section on object classification (section 83). Changes include informative section headings that ask questions and "if-then" tables. In future revisions, we intend to apply these kinds of changes to the remaining sections.

We reorganized Part 1 to place related sections together and present requirements chronologically. General information about the budget and general policies related to developing the estimates and proposals is provided at the beginning of Part 1. Subsequent sections provide information on developing the initial submission, followed by materials required after passback and actions following transmittal of the budget. The sections on materials required after passback cover budget data structure and collection, then publishing the Budget Appendix, then additional material required after passback, and, finally, updates to initial submission materials. We included a table (immediately following the Guide) that crosswalks the old structure to the new structure.

Parts 1 and 2 are divided into chapters. In some cases, the chapters are further divided into subchapters. The information in each chapter is organized into a series of sections that consist of consecutively numbered subsections. Sometimes, related sections are grouped together under unnumbered center headings to help navigate through the Circular.

Section numbers are not repeated between parts. Part 1 includes sections numbered 10 through 112 and appendices A through E; Part 2 includes sections numbered 200 through 233; and Part 3 includes sections numbered 300 and appendices 300A through 300C. We reserved certain section numbers for future use, so there are some gaps in the numbering scheme.

How do I find information in the Circular?

At the beginning of the Circular, there is a table of contents that identifies all the parts, chapters, sections and associated page numbers. There is also a table of contents at the beginning of each section that identifies the subsections and exhibits contained in that section. We summarize major changes in policies and requirements at the beginning of the Circular. In addition, we describe the changes that affect each section at the beginning of that section. At the end of the Circular, there is an index covering the three parts. Following the index, there is a list of OMB Circulars and Executive Orders referenced in A-11. OMB circulars are available for viewing or downloading at the following Internet address:

Presidential Executive Orders are available for viewing or downloading at the following Internet address:

What common conventions does this Circular use?

The term schedule refers to a set of data within the MAX budget database that is complete in itself and describes a view or slice of the President's budget. The data in many of these schedules is printed in the Budget Appendix, in which case the data in a schedule for a budget account defines a printed table in the Appendix. Schedules are described in section 79.

When the Circular refers to a specific year, assume it is a calendar year unless otherwise noted. The following phrases and abbreviations are used to identify specific fiscal years:

Fiscal Year	Description
Past year - 1 (PY-1)	The fiscal year immediately preceding the past year.
Past year (PY)	The fiscal year immediately preceding the current year; the last completed fiscal year.
Current year (CY)	The fiscal year immediately preceding the budget year.
Budget year (BY)	The next fiscal year for which estimates are submitted.

Fiscal Year	Description
Budget year + 1 (BY+1) through budget year + 9 (BY+9)	The fiscal year following the budget year through the ninth fiscal year following the budget year.

Special budget terms, such as budget authority, obligations, and outlays, are defined in section 20.

Who can answer questions about the Circular?

The following table lists OMB organizational units with primary responsibility for certain sections of the Circular. Direct general questions on the instructions and underlying concepts to these units. Direct agency-specific questions on the application of these instructions, as well as on sections not listed below, to your OMB program examiner or Resource Management Office.
